Response is already being made to the appeal for help to build a Model Village on a Model Farm for the Kentucky Orphans Home and more will make their contribution next week. As during the great war the people of Garrard County gave to the limit when they saw the need, so now they are responding to the call of the unfortunate little ones who have no one to look after them and no one to give them the chance to which they are entitled.

All of the churches of the county, all of the public schools, the Womens Club and the Garrard County Chapter of the American Legion have gone on record as saying that they indorse and heartily support the effort being made to help the Home for Orphans.

A $10.00 Orphans Home Club has been formed and the following well known citizens have already joined:

Dates Claimed.

Mrs. Joe Mount's division of the C. W. B. M. society will have an exchange and bazaar, Wednesday, November 26th, which is the day before Thanksgiving.

New Firm.

Currey and Gulley is the style of the new grocery firm, now occupying the old stand of Davidson and Tomlinson, the consolidation of the two stores being mentioned in this paper a few issues past. Mr. Booker Wilkinson has been retained as the chief meat carver and is now on the block with a sharp knife and a nice young beef. Success to the new firm.

MRS MARY LACKEY Passes Away Following Lingering Illness.

In the death of Mrs. Mary Goodloe Lackey Lancaster suffered an irreparable loss. Mrs. Lackey had been ill for several months and gradually grew worse and peacefully passed away Wednesday morning at three o'clock at her home on Danville avenue. She was born in Louisiana and when quite young her parents came to Kentucky. Mrs. Lackey married Mr. Delaney Lackey who died about twelve years ago.

She was a woman who was thoroughly devoted to her household duties, kindly, frank, generous, obliging to all and ever ready to give assistance when it was in her power to do so. She was indeed a very charitable woman, especially to the poor and unfortunate, and each one has some reminiscence of Mrs. Lackey, and the evidence of her kindness, her cordiality, are every where apparent.

She was a worthy representative of a long line of distinguished ancestry.

She was a member of a wealthy pioneer family, being a niece of the late Col. Rhodes Estill and a cousin of Col. James Caperton, of Richmond, being also related to the Goodloe families of Lexington.

Besides her daughter, she leaves two grand-daughters, Mrs. Herbert Price and Miss Mary Lackey, of Danville, her only son, Mr. Goodloe Lackey having died several years ago.

She was a consecrated member of the Presbyterian church and always active in its work when her health would permit.

But it is in the home circle that she will be most missed. We wish it were in our power to say one word that would lend comfort to the sorrow-stricken daughter, but we know how vain it is to attempt to gild a grief with words or try to assuage a pain with any expression of sympathy. We only know that all who live must die, and each must be brave enough to meet what all have met. We can not say whether the good-by here is not somewhere else a dawn. Hope lures us ever ward—Where the faded flowers shall freshen.

Freshen never more to fade:
Where the shaded sky shall brighten,
Brighten never more to shade.

Where the sun blaze never scorches,
Where the star beams cease to chill:
Where no tempest stirs the echoes
Of the wood, or wave, or hill.

Where no shadow shall bewilder,
Where life's vain parade is o'er:
Where the sleep of sin is broken
And the dreamer dreams no more.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at the home at one o'clock. Rev. Harry Hudson officiating, after which the remains were taken to the Richmond cemetery where they were laid to rest by the side of her husband.

Gibbs Farm Sells.

Mr. Luther Gibbs sold this week his splendid farm containing 630 acres to Mr. J. I. Hamilton, price private. The farm is one of the best in the county lying on the Kirsksville and Lancaster pike and about five miles from Lancaster.

Mr. Hamilton informs us that he purchased this farm on a speculative venture and expects to sell it in several tracts in the next few weeks. Every tract will front on a good road, which he expects to build through the farm leading out to the Kirsksville pike. This farm is especially adapted for tobacco, several hundred acres of which is virgin soil. Watch for the advertisement in next weeks issue of the Record.

We understand that Mr. Gibbs will purchase property in Lancaster, and will locate here permanently. This will be gratifying news to the friends of this delightful family, who would regret exceedingly if they should decide to leave the county.

Services At Gilead.

There will be services at Gilead, on the third Sunday in the month, at eleven o'clock. The pastor will be present and preach on the subject of "God's Mercy to Backsliders," using as a text Hosea 14:4.

Every one is cordially invited.

MORROW'S DENIAL

Refuted By Rhea.

Federal Reporter, Official Publication of Court, Shows Republican Candidate was in Famous Grant County Prosecution Of Farmers.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 13th. Thomas S. Rhea, State chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee, has issued a statement supporting his charge that Edwin P. Morrow, Republican candidate for Governor, prosecuted the cases against five tobacco growers of Grant County who were charged with violating the Sherman anti-trust law by combining to secure better prices for the tobacco they had raised.

Morrow, in a speech at Winchester, Wednesday night, denied that he was in these cases.

Mr. Rhea quotes the Federal Reporter on him.

Mr. Rhea also calls on Morrow to answer two questions. These are:

Did Morrow protest against the pardon of these Grant County farmers just because they were pardoned by President Taft?

Did Morrow, while United States District Attorney, prosecute the tobacco trust or any other trust?

WHAT MR. RHEA SAYS:

Mr. Rhea's statement follows:—
"Mr. Morrow, in his speech at Winchester, called in question the statement made by Congressman Cantrill and myself, when we charged that he prosecuted five farmers and tobacco growers under the Sherman anti-trust law. And he says that if we had investigated we would have known the facts.

"I have made an investigation, and find on page 1, Volume 192, Federal Reporter, that on December 5, 1911, the case of the United States against John S. Steers and other farmers, was affirmed in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, and this record shows that the following attorneys participated in the trial of this case:

W. W. Dickerson, (Clare, Dickerson and Clayton, and Myers and Howard, on the brief, for plaintiff in error; E. P. Grosvenor, special Assistant Attorney General, Fowler, Assistant Attorney General, and EDWIN P. MORROW, United States Attorney, on the brief, for the United States.

"Will Mr. Morrow deny that this is a correct record of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals? If this is a true record, then Mr. Morrow did prosecute Mr. Steers and the other farmers under the Sherman anti-trust law.

"Mr. Morrow, tell the people of Kentucky, whether or not, while you were United States District Attorney, you wrote a letter protesting against the pardon of these Grant county farmers a short time before they were pardoned by President Taft?

"Mr. Morrow, did you, while United States District Attorney, prosecute the Tobacco Trust, or any other Trust?

"And why didn't you prosecute the trust which was preventing the farmers of this State from obtaining a fair price for their tobacco?"

Brown.

Last Friday night the community was grieved to hear of the death of Casper Brown, who died Oct. 3rd, in Lincoln County.

Mr. Brown was only nineteen years of age, and had been ill just one week with typhoid fever.

He is survived by one sister and one brother, Miss Geneva Brown of Lincoln County and Harrison Brown of Buckeye.

Casper was a splendid young man and friends will regret to learn of his death. Much sympathy is extended the loved ones.

Time Turns Back.

On Sunday, October 26th, which is the last Sunday in this month, the clocks will be turned back one hour in order to conform to "sun time".

The Day Light Saving Law, recently repealed by Congress, was a war measure and the clocks were turned forward the first Sunday in April.

It has proven a boon to the industries of the country and has meant the savings of millions of dollars in industrial centers, but the farmers throughout the country were mostly as a whole against it and is one of the reasons for its repeal by Congress.

See the add of J. R. Mount and Company, Home, store and business for sale privately.

MANAGER EMPLOYED.

Mr. Roy McCray, of North Middletown Will Manage Tobacco Warehouse.

For several months the directors of the Garrard Tobacco Warehouse have been looking over the state for a man suitable to look after the management of the house, but not until last week were they able to secure the man they wished and get his consent to serve.

Mr. Roy McCray, of North Middletown is the gentleman they have contracted with and the writer knowing personally Mr. McCray for several years, we are frank to say that no better selection could have been made. Mr. McCray was raised in a tobacco patch and knows the weed as none other and the value of it. He will move to Lancaster about November 1st, and take up his duties, getting acquainted with the growers and see to it that they get every cent their tobacco is worth over the floor of the Garrard Tobacco Warehouse.

The prospects were never brighter for a great crop in Garrard than this year and the quality is the best seen here in years. Indications still point to high prices, many predicting the price will be much higher than last year. Hold on to your crop, Mr. Farmer, and sell it on the floors of the best tobacco warehouse in the state.

ABERDEEN.

ANGUS SALE.

Forty Head To Be Sold Here Oct. 22nd.

We wish again to call the attention of our readers to the Aberdeen-Angus sale to be held in this city on October 22nd, which is next Wednesday. In order to be more convenient to the buying public the sale will be conducted at the local Stock pens in this city instead of at the Angus-Stock Farm as told in our issue last week.

Those who miss this sale will miss seeing some of the choicest cattle of this breed ever offered in Kentucky and they are going to sell, so Messrs Bradshaw tells us. A letter to them will bring you one of their catalogues, describing in detail every individual as well as the pedigree. Don't miss the sale for if you do you will regret it.

James Denny

Farm Sells.

The James Denny farm containing about 261 acres was sold by Swinebroad last Friday morning in two tracts at a total average of $196.00 an acre. Mr. Will Palmer bought the home place and 64 acres for $345.00 the remainder of the farm going to Mr. Tom Cotton.

Our Real Estate

Advertisements.

We are carrying another large display of real estate advertisements in this issue of the Record and we ask our readers to carefully peruse these sales and if interested to attend some of them or tell your neighbors about them. Some of the farms are in this county, some in Boyle, Mercer, Lincoln, Casey in fact all are lying in the best sections of the state and are lands that will be absolutely sold to the "high dollar." Swinebroad, who always sells, is carrying nearly two full pages, Hughes and McCarty have two farms one in Casey and one in Lincoln, both will sell, Haselden Brothers will sell the Will Cook place on the New Danville pike, just outside the city limits, Thomas Realty Company are advertising some good ones, others not in the hands of real estate dealers are also advertised in this issue, all of which are advertised to sell. Read them all it will pay you and keep you posted on the value of real estate and farming lands in this and adjoining counties.

Letters Omitted.

Circumstances over which we had no control forced us to leave out several letters from our correspondents this week. We hope to take care of all of them in the future and ask their indulgence for this time.

PROHIBITION ADDRESS.

At Christian Church Last Sunday Night.

J. Raymond Schmidt Pleases Good Audience.

In an address at the Christian Church Sunday night, J. Raymond Schmidt, manager of the Speakers' Bureau of the State-wide Prohibition Federation spoke in part as follows:

"The Prohibitionist who claims the prohibition fight is over in Kentucky is like the ostrich; hiding his head in a pile of sand and because he cannot see danger thinks there isn't any. He reasons that with the nation going constitutionally dry in January, 1920, nothing can be gained or lost in the result of the November vote on the state constitutional amendment. He forgets that the liquorites the country over are hoping Kentucky will return an unfavorable verdict so that they may herald the news far and wide as indicative that dry sentiment is on the decline and that booze is scheduled to come back.

"Over confidence is the danger signal in this the last pitched battle for prohibition in Kentucky. If the amendment is defeated on November 4th, it will not be because of the super-activity of the wets but the too apparent lack of life among the dries. The latter simply must be aroused against their danger and to their opportunity for covering Kentucky with great glory by piling up a plurality of 100,000 for the amendment.

"There are two things that voters should fully understand; that the prohibition amendment will be printed on a separate ballot and that the safest way of getting one of the ballots is to ask the election clerk for it.

"There are four reasons why every patriotic, home-loving citizen should ask for the prohibition ballot and vote for the amendment; namely: first, to provide the constitutional basis for the passage by the next legislature of laws enforcing the state and federal amendments; second, to silence forever any and all claims that the prohibition wave is now receding; third, to endorse Kentucky's ratification of the Federal Prohibition Amendment and fourth, to show through an overwhelming majority such a high pressure of public opinion that all prohibition laws will be more thoroughly enforced and more generally respected by all."

GOVERNOR BLACK To Speak Here Court Day.

The democratic campaign committee of this county is leaving nothing to chance in an effort to put old Garrard into the democratic column on November 4th, and if only the voters of this political faith will come to the polls on that day and stamp under the rooster, Governor Black will be Kentucky's chief magistrate for the next four years.

It will be glad news to his friends to know that he will address the citizens of Garrard and adjoining counties at the Court House in Lancaster on County Court Day. Governor Black is exceedingly popular in this county, as the vote he received in the primary is proof, and we predict that a bumper crowd will be here to welcome him on that day.

Examining Trial

Waived.

The court room was packed yesterday morning to hear the examining trial of Andy Beazley, charged with killing William Denton a few days ago, account of which was given in this paper at the time.

After the calling of many witnesses, the council for the defendant waived the examining trial and Beazley was remanded to jail to await the action of the grand jury which convenes next month.

Horse and ### Buggy Stolen.

Some thief who should spend his future days in the penitentiary stole a horse and buggy from an alley in Lancaster last Friday night and the owner, Mr. Sam Morris has been unable up to this time to hear any trace of them. They are both described in an advertisement in this issue, where Mr. Morris is offering a reward of $25.00 for their return.

Numerous memorial meetings will be held throughout the United States during the week of this drive and meetings of this character will be held in this county, which will be asked to give $500.00 toward this fund.

Every person who gives to this fund during that week will become a permanent member of the Roosevelt Memorial Association. Any contribution, large or small, will entitle such donor to membership.

Mrs. Forest Stapp has been appointed County Chairman of the Womens Roosevelt Memorial Association by Mrs. S. Thurston Ballard State Chairman.

The object in view is to solicit funds for the purpose of purchasing the house in New York where Roosevelt was born, to fit it up with his belongings, and make it a fitting memorial to this great American.

Finds Something To ### Do The Business.

"I tried everything that I heard of for the stomach and bowel trouble and bloating, but got no permanent help until I struck Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and that did the business. My son in Canada has also taken it and writes it has done him a lot of good." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

R. E. McRoberts, Druggist, Lancaster, Ky. adv.

Card of Thanks

We take this method of thanking the many friends for their kindness and beautiful floral offerings during the recent illness and death of our wife and mother.
